David:

We would like to discuss the status of Texas's production of documents and a privilege log in response to the United States' First Set of Requests for Production of Documents; the United States' request of January 10, 2014 that Defendants search the email records of certain legislators, staff, and agents; and the status of the modifications to Defendants' proposed email search terms.

Please let us know when it would be convenient to discuss these issues on Monday. I am sorry that we were unable to get you a written statement of the issues before COB last night.

Thank you,

Dan

Dan,

Because I haven't heard from you, and it's after 7:00 on the East Coast, I'm going to inform our attorneys not to stand by for a conference call today. Have a great weekend.

Regards,
David

Dan,

Can you circulate the issues you'd like to discuss so we can gather the appropriate attorneys? We will also need a conference call-in number.

Thanks,
David

Subject: Veasey v. Perry: Call Concerning Outstanding Discovery Matters

David,

Thank you again for letting us know that you and your co-counsel are out of the office today due to the weather. However, would it be possible for you to call us so that we can discuss a few outstanding discovery matters? I can be reached at (202) 305-4355. Please give me a few minutes warning before calling so that I can gather other attorneys in my office.

Regards,

Dan Freeman
